

International Summer School

2013

The Chinese University of Hong Kong

Founded in 1963, The Chinese University of Hong Kong (CUHK) is a forward looking comprehensive research university with a global vision and the mission to combine tradition with modernity, and to bring together China and the West. CUHK teachers and students hail from all over the world, and the quality of its research and teaching enjoys global recognition. With its rich blend of Western approaches and Chinese culture, CUHK is the ideal university for international students to gain an academically challenging and culturally stimulating experience.

Office of Summer Programmes

The Office of Summer Programmes (OSP) organizes the International Summer School (ISS) and the International Summer School – Chinese Language Programme (ISS-CLP) to provide students with an exceptional opportunity to combine high-quality learning with an unforgettable summer experience.

SUMMER PROGRAMMES

CUHK International Summer School

2 July – 5 August 2013

Distinctive Features

• International Learning Environment

The CUHK International Summer School (ISS) is open to local and international students; while attending, students live and learn alongside other academic achievers from a range of cultures. International students can immerse themselves in a multicultural environment and gain insights into Asian cultures, experience a unique learning environment on the green, spacious campus of CUHK outside regular term time, and enjoy the many pleasures of summer in Hong Kong – Asia's world city. CUHK and local students can have a taste of cultural exchange with international students without going abroad.

In 2012, around 650 students attended the ISS; 75% of them came from 36 places around the world. They made the programme truly international.

• Outstanding Academics

At the ISS, courses are taught by outstanding academics from CUHK and prestigious overseas universities. All of these academics are excellent teachers and many of them are frontrunners in research.
